

Clinical Waste Discussion Forum Crossword #1

<http://www.ianblenkarn.com>

home of the
Clinical Waste Discussion Forum

Across

1. No two ways about it, this should always come first
4. A colourful US classification for medical trash
8. Have you been reading the Forum? This trash comes from the Doctors office
9. (and 18 across) Creates a Forum for everyone
11. see 12 Down
13. Segregate with care because of their effects on DNA
16. A change of colour does not make bags safe
17. See these as a potent route for bloodborne virus acquisition
18. see 9 Across
20. These ubiquitous containers are the backbone of waste management, from household to hospital and back
22. Increasing seen as a resource, the detritus of our daily lives is a business for some
26. A high temperature thermal reaction but without combustion
27. A vehicle for infection; take great care not to spill it
28. Is this the power that drives an autoclave?
29. Ouch! Ouch! Ouch! Ouch!
30. A housekeeping chore that returns cleaned containers to customers
31. In resource-poor regions the public health implications can be severe though reprocessing single-use instruments can be safe and cost-effective
32. A microbial complication nobody would wish for, or is it just a sickie?

Down

2. More than a job sheet, this detailed written instruction is an essential for drivers carrying dangerous goods by road
3. Reuse and reduce: what can be left?
5. 2 wheels or 4, this receptacle takes just 3 letters
6. It's that damn French again! We know it as the European Agreement concerning the International Carriage of Dangerous Goods by Road (abr)
7. Needs treating
9. Leaves an extremely nasty taste to dissuade illicit drug recovery
10. Overcoming colds and flu? Can we save this additional resource?
12. (and 11 across, 15 down) A de facto standard?
14. Burn baby, burn.
15. (see 12 down)
19. Keep waste away from this hole in the ground
21. This pressure vessel gets very hot
23. Boxing attire? These separate all fingers and thumb?
24. You have been warned!
25. This bit of the electromagnetic spectrum kills bugs in some ATT plant

<http://www.ianblenkharn.com>

home of the

Clinical Waste Discussion Forum